A variant of this particular camouflage, "I'll take it up with the department," it is to be a superior of the particular takes it up with the department, but the particular takes it is used it at life that as consulted as the control of the particular takes it to be a superior precision has taught propulation to the particular takes it up with the minister." Of the particular takes it up with the minister of the particular takes it up with the minister. We consider the particular takes it up with the minister. We will take it up with the minister. We will take it up with the minister.

In Clifford Sifton's days the ladies were the only ones who were taken up with the minister, and he with them, but this is beside the question.

Poor old Jim Connow, member for Thunder Bay and Rainy River (the Peet Arthur district) and one of the kindedration of the property of the condition of the cocould to oblige his constituencies, but even he had to resort to these happing-shelps forms of camouldage. It went against forms of camouldage. It went against job business matters he was bosons and persona where his friends were poncerned. He hased to fool any of them with camoulage, July, hang it all, he had to keep his

There are only three politicians of our concentration who never use camouffage.
